Area Baptist Women Present Bridge Party

The annual "Winter Wonderland" program arrived in full splendor Friday evening at the Torrance First Baptist Church as the Harbor Association of American Baptist Women met for the "Starlite Banquet."

Some 360 women welcomed the mystery guest and toastmistress, Mrs. George Armacost. She presented everyone with a royal crown which was worn by each member attending.

An eight-foot snowlady, "Ima Baptist," greeted guests from the speakers platform. Two starlets, Barbara Bower and Adra Whipple, tossed "stardust" into the air.

Featured speaker was the "Star of India," Marjanet Worrell, missionary to India.

A total of 22 American Baptist churches are in the Harbor Association. Torrance women who are officers in the association are Mrs. Roy Muncy, state president; Mrs. Norma Condon, singing star, and Mrs. Ed Enrietta, first vice president and program chairman.

Mrs. E. I. Lewis Jr., with the cooperation of the Women's Society of Torrance First Baptist Church, made the arrangements for the banquet.
